

MAXIMIZING MINING REVENUES FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN THE 21ST CENTURY

Side Event of the 2021 ECOSOC Financing for Development Forum

WEBINAR

Wednesday, April 14, 2021
7:30 am EST / 1:30 pm CEST

Why are we here today?

1. The low carbon energy transition depends on minerals
2. It is an opportunity for resource-rich countries to strengthen domestic revenue mobilisation
3. We must reform the mining tax system to ensure that the sector contributes fully to the SDGs

Introducing Our Speakers

Logan Wort
Executive Secretary, ATAF

Alexandra Readhead
Lead, Tax and Extractives Industries, IGF

Abdoulaye Magassouba
Minister of Mines and Geology
Republic of Guinea

Zayabal Batjargal
Commissioner of the General
Department of Taxation, Mongolia

Ana Carolina Gonzalez Espinosa
Senior Program Officer
Ford Foundation

Agenda

1. Introduction and housekeeping
2. Logan Wort, Executive Secretary, African Tax Administration Forum
Abdoulaye Magassouba, Minister of Mines and Geology, Republic of Guinea Zayabal Batjargal, Commissioner of Taxation, General Department of Taxation, Mongolia
First Round of Q&A
3. Alexandra Readhead, Lead, Tax and Extractives, IGF
Ana Carolina Gonzalez Espinosa, Senior Program Officer, Ford Foundation
Second round of Q&A
4. Announcement: Call for Ideas – The Future of Resource Taxation
5. Closing remarks

SEEKING: FRESH IDEAS

To help resource-rich countries improve revenue collection from the mining sector
Submit your idea today!

CALL FOR IDEAS

The Future of Resource Taxation

Deadline: April 30